

PRELIM PROGRAM

Monday - 25 March

3.45pm – 4.30pm	Conference Registration
Session 1:	Plenary
4.30pm – 4.55pm	Welcome from Institute of Public Works Engineering Australasia Fleet Achievement Award Presentation
4.55pm – 5.00pm	MC sponsor address	Sponsored by
5.00pm – 5.05pm	Platinum sponsor address
Keynote Address 5.05pm – 5.45pm	Fleet Management – the Big Picture Brett Hay and Tom Debney, Principal Consultants, Expense Reduction Analysis The fleet industry is rapidly changing. Technology, economics, evolving markets and new management tools will continue to change the game. This session looks at the big changes happening in the fleet industry right now.
5.45pm – 6.15pm	Panel Session Panel of professionals addressing the big issues in fleet management	Brett Hay Tom Debney
6.15pm – 8.15pm	Hino Welcome Function - Hall A	Sponsored by

Tuesday - 26 March

7.15am – 8.00am	Conference Registration	Sponsored by
	Isuzu Breakfast, Delegate and Exhibitor Networking - Hall A
Session 2:	Plenary
8.00am - 8.10am	Welcome and Silver sponsor address
8.10am - 8.30am	The Road Ahead Robert Wilson, Manager, IPWEA FLEET This session presents a number of initiatives being undertaken by IPWEA to support fleet practitioners meet the challenge and lead fleet management in Australasia.
8.30am – 9.15am	A Risky Business - Managing risk in a fleet Duncan Ferguson, CEO &amp; Co-Founder, Fleet Risk Operating a fleet carries many risks, not the least of which is the human element. This session presents how you can improve fleet efficiency by: Understanding human factors and behaviour   Managing and reducing risk incidents   Containing crash & insurance costs
9.15am – 10.00am	The Road to Compliance - A Chain of Responsibility Case study Mike Wood, Managing Director, Latus Meeting the obligations of National Heavy Vehicle Law and COR requires a structured and methodical approach. This session presents real life examples of the journey along the compliance path.
10.00am – 10.10am	Premium sponsor address	TELETRACNAVMAN
10.10am – 10.45am	Teletrac Navman Morning tea Networking with Trade Exhibitors - Hall A	Sponsored by TELETRACNAVMAN

Session 3: Concurrent
10.45am – 11.30am	Fit and Able: Verification of competency  Dean Gutteridge, Manager Fleet Services, City of Gold Coast            Ensuring your staff are fit and able to undertake the job is fundamental to a successful fleet operation. This real life case study will address how to ensure your staff are fit for the job and consider:            Internal Licensing.            Medical Certification.
	The Modern Technician  Paul Woodland, National Manager of Member Value, HVIA  What are the skills needed in today's maintenance operation? This session will address:            The changing requirements for automotive technicians.            How the industry is responding.            The need for Auto electricians, Diesel Mechanics and dual trade.            What are the necessary skills for now and in the future.
Session 4: Plenary
11.30am – 12.15pm	What Happens When the Ink is Dry - Managing 3rd Party Maintenance Providers            Whether you operate a fully outsourced maintenance operation or outsource only certain activities, it is critical you get the level of service you require and that the service provider meets your organisation's requirements. This session will focus on the real-world challenges of managing outsourced service providers and provide strategies that you can apply for better outcomes.
12.15pm – 1.15pm	Lunch and networking with Trade Exhibitors - Hall A
Session 5: Plenary – International Speakers
Keynote Address 1.15pm – 2.00pm	International Fleet Management, North America Sustainable Excellence in Fleet Management  Tom Johnson, Author, 100BestFleets            Tom has been a champion for Fleet Managers in North America for 20 years. This presentation will focus on developing skills and strategies for sustained excellence in fleet management. Ideas and technologies that are transforming the industry in relentless pursuit of efficiencies, cost savings and change management.
2.00pm – 2.30pm	Facilitated Panel discussion including the International Keynote Speaker
2.30pm – 3.00pm	Afternoon Tea, Delegate and Exhibitor networking - Hall A
Keynote Address 3.00pm – 3.45pm	International Fleet Management, Philippines  Noel Ila, Director, Philippines DPWH            This session will present fleet management from the perspective of a complex fleet in the Philippines. The presentation will discuss: Reliability Centred Maintenance   The Improvement pathway Challenges   Different assets used in the Philippines
3.45pm – 4.15pm	Facilitated Panel discussion including the International Keynote Speaker
Session 6: Concurrent
4.20pm – 5.00pm	Watts Current in Heavy Electric Vehicles?  Rob Wrigley, Superior Pak            This presentation will look at current, real world examples of EVs in heavy vehicle applications such as waste compactors.
	Fleet Management Master Class  Peter Armour, Unit Manager Plant &amp; Fleet, Central Coast Council  Tom Brayley, Operations Coordinator - Plant and Materials, Tweed Shire Council            Facilitated session with panel of experienced and respected Fleet Managers to address the HR issues common in today's workplace:            Training   Succession   Skills   Recruitment
5.00pm – 5.10pm	Gold Sponsor Address
5.30pm – 7.30pm	Volvo Conference Networking Reception
	VOLVO            Volvo Group Australia            Sponsored by  VOLVO            Volvo Group Australia

Wednesday - 27 March

7.30am – 8.20am	Breakfast, Delegate and Exhibitor networking - Hall A
Session 7: Plenary
8.20am - 8.30am	Welcome and sponsor address
8.30am – 9.15am	From Local Government to Private Enterprise  Alan Holland, Eclipx            Comparisons are often made between the public and private sectors. This insightful session is presented by a fleet manager who has worked in both and provides learning that can be applied regardless of the industry you work in.            A comparison between running Public and Private Sector Fleets   Managing different fleets            Differences between sectors   Challenges   Learning from the differences.            Takeaways that delegates can apply now.
9.15am – 10.00am	Implementing a new Fleet Management Information System  Jon Horsey, Fleet Manager, Redlands City Council            The success of a new FMIS is dependent on how it is implemented. This case study presents the learnings from transitioning to a new fleet system in a diverse fleet operation.
10.00am – 10.30am	Morning tea and networking with Trade Exhibitors HALL A
Session 8: Plenary
10.30am – 11.15am	Smart Plant - New Technology Plant and Equipment  Andrew Wheeler, Conplant            This informative session presents technological changes in plant and equipment technology that will improve efficiency and effectiveness
11.15am – 12.00pm	Robotics in Fleet Management  Scott Hanson, Engineering Director, Smartech            Robotics are now helping fleets be safer and more efficient. This session will discuss how robots are having an impact: Camera checking environs of compactor   Robotics in fleet management   Automation
12.00pm – 12.15pm	Conference Close
12.15pm – 12.30pm	Lunch - Grab and Go
12.30pm – 4.15pm	Bus Departs for Technical Tour  Afternoon tea hosted by Volvo Group Australia
4.15pm	Bus returns to hotel            Rydges Fortitude Valley

